

POLICY 540: Supervisory Conflict of Interest

The Board of Education of School District No. 8 (Kootenay Lake) prohibits employment situations where employees occupy positions where a Direct Supervisory relationship exists between family, significant others or close associates. Exceptions to this policy will only be considered in rare and extraordinary circumstances where staff shortages exist. This policy will not affect such working relationships that were established prior to August 1, 2014, however any transfers or promotions of these employees will be subject to the new policy.
