

2.2.2 Parent/Guardian Consent for Consultation

Date _____

Dear Parent/Guardian,

In supporting students with their progress, the school-based team sometimes requests assistance from a district inclusion support teacher.

The goal of a consult is to assist the team in determining strategies to implement with students in the classroom environment.

Consultations typically consist of meeting with school staff and parents, completing a short classroom observation and writing a report with recommendations.

We ask for your consent for a district inclusion support teacher to complete a student consultation and compile a report. Please complete the portions below if you consent.

I, _____ provide consent for my child,
